Notes

Hannibal has gotten rather use to his life in America now.

He was content with his job in the local asylum. He had a host of events to go to for his love of the fine arts. He also had access to all he needed for his more culinary hobbies as well. The police were thoroughly at a loss, despite feeling they were on to him and he lived a life of few worries. It's was almost boring in how easy it had become.

He didn't expect a fascinating patient to derail that entire sense of comfort and boredom by giving him a mist unexpected challenge.

Keeping Will Graham alive.
